RESTAURANT DINNER BOOKINGS

Dinner bookings of 15 - 18 persons (19 persons or more is deemed a function) may in some circumstances require credit card details to be held on file before they can be confirmed.

This will be clarified and more information provided when the booking is made.

BAR ACCOUNTS

Flexibility is yours. A credit limit will be set by you and guests can then charge onto the function tab account. Once this limit has been reached, further funds can be added to the account or guests can pay their own way at the bar.

You as the account holder can specify the range of beverage selection available on the bar account.
